

Henry Fowler

EVESHAM GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Summer TERM, 1880.

Henry Fowler

FORM II. No. OF BOYS IN FORM. PLACE.

Scripture	Fairly good.
Latin and French	Very fair. Is at last learning how to pronounce French.
English	Very good. Spelling somewhat improved though still weak.
Mathematics	Very sharp & intelligent, especially in mental arithmetic.
Conduct	Satisfactory.

REMARKS:

He deserves his place well. He must however take much more pains with his writing and spelling. He would certainly ^{have} done much better in the examination had he been able to write neatly & spell correctly.

Winter TERM, 1881

FORM III.

Absent from School. once
Late once

No. of Boys in Form. 8 Place. 7

SCRIPTURE. Fair.

LATIN & FRENCH. He seems to have little or no idea of his work in these subjects.

ENGLISH. His spelling is painful & he does not improve in it. He has no conception of sound.

MATHEMATICS. Quick but not very accurate.

CONDUCT. Satisfactory.

GENERAL REMARKS.

I have been obliged to put him with the class below. He has seemed for some time to be utterly out of his element. He is always on the move, distracted by every trifle. I can not help thinking he estimates his own powers too highly.

FORM II

No of times late — 1

No of times absent — 7.

No. of Boys in Form. 6

Place. 2

SCRIPTURE. He has worked very fairly well but I sh^d like to have seen a better result from his hand R.S.

LATIN & FRENCH. He has made decided progress especially in Latin. The result of his hand was very satisfactory R.S.

ENGLISH. He was well to the front of all the others in his hand. His Hist. Geog. & Eng. Exam-papers were all very well answered R.S.

MATHEMATICS. He has made very fair progress but I wish I could see him a little more careful in his hand work R.S.

CONDUCT. Satisfactory, though he would be better for more decided attention in School U.

GENERAL REMARKS.

His English Examination was very fairly satisfactory especially his English History but in Mathematics he loses very much through inaccuracy.

No. OF TIMES ABSENT 7 FORM III.

No. OF BOYS IN FORM 4 PLACE /

SCRIPTURE Very Fair

LATIN & FRENCH His defect as to distinction of sounds seems to bother him much in both subjects. Still he progresses very fairly.

ENGLISH Satisfactory

MATHEMATICS He is making considerable progress in Euclid & has an aptitude for figures. He is much less careless than he was.

CONDUCT Satisfactory

GENERAL REMARKS.

Good steady progress in all his subjects

SCRIPTURE Very good. S.P.

LATIN & FRENCH Very satisfactory progress.

ENGLISH Very creditable progress. Work generally carefully prepared. H.T.S.

MATHEMATICS Has a good grasp of this subject & does well in it.

CONDUCT Satisfactory. S.P.

GENERAL REMARKS.

He has done exceedingly well on the whole but he seems to succeed very much better when he is among his whom he can easily defeat. When moved up next term I trust he will be equal to the occasion.

SCRIPTURE Very Fair H.T.J.

LATIN & FRENCH French Satisfactory H.T.J.
His preparation in Latin is not always quite careful, but he is gaining a considerable knowledge of the Elements.

ENGLISH Good H.T.J.

MATHEMATICS Very creditable progress indeed H.T.J.

CONDUCT Satisfactory H.T.J.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Gets on very well on the whole. I am afraid he is sometimes a little hasty in his preparation. Very attentive in class.

Trinity TERM, 1880

FORM III

H. Fowler

No. of Boys in Form. 8 . . . Place. 6 . absent 9 times late for school - twice

SCRIPTURE. Very good. Answers readily and accurately.

LATIN & FRENCH. Very poor. Seems to make but little progress in his Latin.

ENGLISH. Not very satisfactory.

MATHEMATICS. Very fair. His writing renders it rather difficult to do him full justice.

CONDUCT. Satisfactory, I think.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Rather volatile - easily distracted. He has, in many respects shown decided improvement. I could wish a more visible amendment in the matter of spelling & writing, but both seem great stumbling-blocks to him.
