EVESHAM GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Summer TERM, 1880.

Henry Fowler

FORM I. NO. OF BOYS IN FORM. PLACE.

Scripture	Fairly good.
Latin and French	Very fair. Is at last learning how to pronounce these well.
English	Very good. Spelling somewhat improved. Copying well.
Mathematics	Very sharp & intelligent. Especially in mental work.
Conduct	Satisfactory.

REMARKS:

He deserves his place well. He must however take much more pains with his writing and spelling. He would certainly do much better in the latter part had he been able to write neatly & spell correctly.

(Signed) Henry Fowler M.A.
President Master
7. S. Heycock. B. A.
The next term will commence Wednesday Sept. 10th

Description

Sir Henry Fowler Collection: Address book. Well used. No evident dates but 'biro' ink and entries which suggest use well into the later half of the 20th century tend to suggest it post-dates Sir Henry. It also contains notes regarding holidays in the front flyleaf and at the back which do tend to correspond to the photographs in the collection.

Description

Sir Henry Fowler Collection: Residual of the collection, not directly connected to Sir Henry, instead originating from descendants. Many address books, the majority of which feature as the first name; Jeannie Atkinson. Also includes the passport of and other papers relating to, Elizabeth Selina Fairpro nee Parkin b. 04MAR1901 at Felling on Tyne. There is a recipe book marked Edith Fowler on the cover (wife of Henry junior) to which is added Jennifer Fowler (Sir Henry's granddaughter). Two audio recordings on vinyl, presumably mid 20th century, the contents of which remain a mystery.
